Town of Trumbull Bus Service Request

School bus service is provided free of charge for residents of the Town of Trumbull. Your child's information will be submitted to the Trumbull Transportation Department to enable them to use the Trumbull school bus service. These buses only service Christian Heritage School students. CHS will notify you of the location and times once the route is established and your child can begin to use the service. If registering in August or mid-year, bus service may take up to one week to become available.
